

Timbre Tales

A collaboration of the Greenville Symphony Orchestra
& South Carolina Children's Theatre

Timbre Tales, a collaboration between South Carolina Children's Theatre and the Greenville Symphony Orchestra, are programs presented at SCCT in downtown Greenville (153 Augusta Street) on three Tuesdays throughout the school year. SCCT Principal Teaching Artist Traysie Amick presents a character performance of a children's book, while GSO chamber ensembles perform classical pieces selected for each story.

Performances are FREE and start at 4:30 p.m. (early arrival is highly encouraged!) Programs last approximately 30 minutes and are appropriate for children in K3-5th grade, although all children and adults are welcome.

For more information about Timbre Tales programs, visit www.greenvillesymphony.org or contact Braxton Ballew, GSO Education Director at (864) 232-0344, x19 or braxton@greenvillesymphony.org.
