

Once Upon An ORCHESTRA!

What do you get when you combine
Greenville Symphony Orchestra's
Music Education program with
South Carolina Children's Theatre's
Tell Me a Story theatre?

Once Upon An Orchestra performances connects the children in your life to stories, music, and movement! Not only will young people be exposed to inspiring classical music, they will experience the connection stories make to these musical masterpieces! Best of all, we take turns! First we perform for you, and then young people are invited to engage in a dramatic interpretation of moments or ideas in both the music and the story.

COME IMAGINE WITH US!

Performances are FREE and start at 11:00 am. Programs are appropriate for children 2 to 5 years old (slightly younger than Lollipops).

For more information or to sign up to receive email reminders about concerts for children, visit www.greenvillesymphony.org or contact the GSO Education Director at (864) 232-0344, x119!
